The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1

Mandatory Condition #2: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.Supporting Evidence: Kevin Caraker is considered in violation of his period of supervised release in the Eastern District of Washington by committing the offenses of burglary in the second degree and possession of stolen property, on or prior to October 6, 2010.

On October 4, 2010, detectives with the Kennewick Police Department began an investigating after the burglary of Les Schwab Tire Center on Clearwater in Kennewick, Washington. Their investigation led them to the defendant and his roommate. A search warrant was obtained for the defendant's vehicle and residence. During the course of the search, evidence was located in the defendant's residence which was allegedly tied to the burglary. Also located during the search were items which had been stolen during another burglary.

The defendant has been charged under case number 10-1-01045-2, for the burglary of the Les Schwab Tire Center and under case number PC10Y0756 for possessing the stolen
